Archie Barry is a multidisciplinary artist working in Birraranga/Naarm (Melbourne, Australia). Their practice takes form as an autobiographical, somatic and process-led exploration of personhood, gender and mortality. They have exhibited and performed at The National Gallery of Victoria, Melbourne; The Australian Centre for Contemporary Art; Melbourne, The Museum of Contemporary Art; Sydney, Contemporary Art Tasmania; Artspace, Sydney; Buxton Contemporary; Melbourne and ALASKA Projects; Sydney, amongst other spaces. Barry completed a Masters of Contemporary Art at Victorian College of the Arts where they are currently a sessional lecturer.

Spence Messih is an artist living and working on Gadigal land (Sydney, Australia). Their practice speaks to sites of pressure, power structures, materiality and language and more specifically about these things in relation to their own trans experience. Their work has been exhibited at Auto Italia, London; The Museum of Contemporary Art, Sydney; The Australian Centre for Contemporary Art, Melbourne; Artspace, Sydney; ALASKA Projects; and Firstdraft Gallery; among others. They have undertaken artist residency programs with Bundanon Trust; Wildfjords, West Fjords, Iceland; and at NES, Skagaströnd, Iceland. They are a current PhD candidate at The University of NSW Art and Design.
